JUDGMENT (Per Sri B.Prakash Rao, J)

Heard both sides and at their request, the main appeal itself is taken up for disposal.

The respondents in the writ petition are the appellants herein, who seek to assail the order in the writ petition filed by the respondent herein, whereunder a challenge was made as against their action in not releasing the increments from 1998 to 2001 and in not restoring back the time scale which was reduced from one stage for one year.

Considering the submissions made and on perusal of record, it is seen that the learned Judge without going into the merits of the case, directed the appellants to take appropriate decision in respect of the same and there is no finding much less any consideration on merits. In view of the same, we do not find any justification to entertain this appeal.

Accordingly, the writ appeal is dismissed. No costs.
